Pentecost Sunday
 June 4, 2017

“Brothers and sisters ‘No one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit. There are different forms of service, but the same Lord. There are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.”

On this great day we recall a new life given to the apostles and the church, we see the signs of tongues of fire, hear the noise and feel the wind which accompanied the Spirit. That same Spirit has directed the church through twenty centuries with great blessings, trying difficulties, but always manifesting an abiding presence. How true that is for us today.

I ask what are the gifts present and needed by the church today. I wonder about the service which the church can provide to our needy world. I look to observe the Spirit at work among us. Yes, the words of Paul are manifest today.

But I also must ask what am I doing to use the gifts I have received, or what service can I provide, or what work needs to be done, and If I don't do it, it will always remain undone. I ask that the Spirit of Pentecost will awaken me.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Like the disciples in today's gospel, there are times we shut the doors of our hearts to people or events. It's how we create emotional distance. Permanent distancing is lethal and prevents the PEACE Jesus offers you today.

DEFENDING OUR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), says that he will continue to advocate for permanent relief from Congress on issues of critical importance to people of faith. "Religious freedom is a fundamental right that should be upheld by all branches of government and not subject to political whims" he says. Cardinal DiNardo met with President Trump in early May to address First Amendment rights of the church that have been ignored under Obamacare.

May the Breath of God stir the fire of our love and empower our response.
